

St Robert of Knaresborough
Celebrating the 800th anniversary of St Robert's death
Launch event, 24th September 2017

Suggestions from the launch event:

| Suggestions: | What we are/could do: |
|--|--|
| Make sure there are lots of mentions in the local media. | The co-ordinating team and Bernard Higgins will be feeding the local and wider media with articles and news. |
| Articles in local Church magazines | This is being organised through Christians together in Knaresborough, not excluding St Roberts at Pannal and elsewhere on request. |
| Information about St Robert's spirituality and calling. | This will start to appear on the website – all contributions welcome. |
| Devise a designated walk – e.g. the St Robert's Way from Pannal to the Cave via Spofforth and Rudfarlington, including information boards along the way. | Carol Harrison has offered to co-ordinate this part of the activity, but will I'm sure welcome a small group to help. |
| Performances of 'Flower of York' (Mark Pallant's composition) in various locations. | Mark is planning a refresh of 'Flower of York' and is working with Carmel Wake and others around the musical aspects of the celebrations – if you want a performance 'near you' just let them/us know. |
| A schools project. | Thinking is taking place, including the production of a commemorative coin and activities within St John's School, but involvement of other schools and the development of a town-wide approach would be welcomed. |
| A visit to Morley, Derbyshire, to see 7 stained glass windows of St Roberts – quiet day/study day? | Great idea – offers to co-ordinate welcome. |
| Website with lots of information! | Happening.... |
| A new information board at the cave. Signage to St Robert's cave from Knaresborough. Tidy-up of site (address Himalayan Balsam). | Work in progress initiated by Christine Willoughby, but offers of help and support will be welcomed. |
| Town window/Tromp. | In hand – Knaresborough Renaissance on the lookout and Shirley Vine standing by with design ideas. |
| Getting involved in drama. | A feva presence is being planned – Dan Ingram-Brown and Peter Lacey co-ordinating but others welcome to get involved. |
